

Mr Francis Ho
Associate Director-General of Investment Promotion, Invest Hong Kong
The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

Biography

Mr Francis Ho joined Invest Hong Kong (InvestHK) as Associate Director-General of Investment Promotion in September 2014. He is responsible for overseeing InvestHK's network of 30 investment promotion units and consultants on the Mainland of China, in Taiwan and overseas, as well as supervising the Global Events Management, Corporate Services and Administration sections of the Department.

Francis joined the Hong Kong Government in 1996. From 2000-2004, he was Assistant Secretary in the then Commerce, Industry and Technology Bureau responsible for promotion of Hong Kong's professional services sector and development of an electronic advance reporting system for cross-boundary road cargoes. He was Deputy Director of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Toronto from 2004-2007. He then served seven years in the Food and Health Bureau, during which he was Administrative Assistant to the Secretary for Food and Health from 2010 to 2014 responsible for the operation of the Secretary's private office.

Francis is married with two young children.

(as at March 2017)